Our colour palette is selected to reflect youthful energy and to differentiate from previous Summer and Winter Games. The vibrant combination of Rich Purple, Intense Red, Calm Blue, Lush Green and New Black is drawn from the natural palette of Singapore – the sparkling water, verdant plant life and rich biodiversity that characterise the island – and also stands for a constantly evolving, 24-hour city of progress, modernity and stunning architecture. The four colours also represent the four main ethnic groups that make up our diverse nation.

The primary colour palette chosen for the venue dressing consists mainly of Rich Purple, Intense Red and Calm Blue. These colours will be pieced together to create visual interest as well as to enhance the overall look and feel of the games.

Rich Purple will be mainly used together with the Singapore 2010 Youth Olympic Games branding (a). Hence, it will be used in conjunction with the emblem, wordmark and mascots (d).

Intense Red will be mainly used together with the Olympic Ring (b). In addition banners featuring the mascot, Lyo, will also be in red (e).

In some cases, this colour is also used to represent the fire core graphic (g).

Calm Blue will be used mainly to portray the YOG DNA (c). It is also frequently used to feature the mascot, Merly (f).

In some cases, this colour is also used to represent the water core graphic (h).

Application Sequence

The principle of the colour sequence should be applied to all items pertaining to venue dressing. They should observe a specific arrangement when placed together at a specific venue. However, exceptions can be made when ad-hoc pieces are required or when there are sequences with less than 3 pieces, due to location or space constraints. However, contractors are to note that the branding of the event is of utmost importance and should always be placed in the centre amidst the rest of the other pieces.

Legend - Kindly follow the number to determine the sequence of placement (horizontal banners are used only as examples but this applies to the bulk of the KOP)
